Report on seminar library

A seminar library has been set up in 2005 in the honours room of the Philosophy department. The purpose of this library is to supply honours level texts and reference books to the needy students. Books donated by the teacher as well as purchased from the college grants are kept in the library. The meritorious but needy students can take books from this library. The relationship between teachers and students becomes more cordial after the setting up of this library. As the students help the teachers in the running of the library, a sense of responsibility grows in them.

Value addition :

- To help needy students.
- Build up students teachers relationship.
- Meritorious students are more helpful for this library.
- Students issue more books from this library.

Teachers Day Celebration

Date – 16/09/2022

Place – Honours room of Department of Philosophy (213)

Organised by – Honours students of 1st, 3rd and 5th semester, department of Philosophy.

Few words about the Teacher's Day programme

Teacher's day is celebrated every year on 5th September, to commemorate the birthday of former president Dr. Sarvapelli Radhakrishnan. He was also a well-known scholar, philosopher, teacher, promoter of education and Bharat Ratna awardee. Teacher's day is marked across India to honour become of wisdom, the figure of inspiration, and the noble soul that awaken the mind and heart of the teachers. Dr. Radhakrishnan once stated that "teachers should be the best minds in the country".

On this very day, Teacher's day celebration in our department are organized by our departmental students for their beloved teacher as a means to thank them for their contribution in shaping their lives.

On this day students give some flowers and gift to their teacher and engage in various performances such as dancing, singing, recitation etc. The day is celebrated with fervor and vigor.
